The following documentation, if applicable to the subject establishment, shall be submitted to the land development coordination division by the property owner, the holder of the alcoholic beverage license, or their designated representative, as evidence that the sale of alcoholic beverages has resumed at or from the parcel approved for alcoholic beverage sales:

1. The most current invoices, delivery receipts, and payments to a distributor of alcoholic beverages of sales of alcoholic beverages at or from the parcel approved for alcoholic beverage sales; and,
2. The most current records of state sales tax payments; and,
3. The most current records of electric usage, consumption, and payment for the business establishment operated on the parcel approved for alcoholic beverage sales; and,
4. The most current records of water usage, consumption, and payment of same for the business establishment operated on the parcel approved for alcoholic beverage sales; and,
5. Photographs of the parcel approved for alcoholic beverage sales evidencing that the structure located thereon complies with the property maintenance and structural standards in Chapter 19; and,
7. Copy of a valid and current alcoholic beverage sales license from the State of Florida; and,
8. Copy of valid and current city business tax receipt; and,
9. Copy of valid and current occupational license.

Land development staff shall review and evaluate the documentation provided by the property owner, the holder of the alcoholic beverage license, or their designated representative. The documentation, collectively, must at a minimum demonstrate on going sales activity (less the period during which the parcel approved for alcoholic beverage sales was posted), continual operation and maintenance of the parcel approved for alcoholic beverage sales, and a state and local licensure for the business entity located on the parcel approved for alcoholic beverage sales. If the above documentation is provided in conformity with the requirements stated herein, the land development coordination division shall advise the property owner and the holder of the alcoholic beverage license that the sale of alcoholic beverages may continue at or from the parcel approved for alcoholic beverage sales in accordance with the ordinance authorizing same.

Failure to provide the required information may result in the property losing its ability to sell alcoholic beverages.
