

COUNCIL MEMBER APPLICATION

APPLICATION TO JOIN THE
CITY OF TAMPA
MAYOR'S AFRICAN AMERICAN ADVISORY COUNCIL
[MAAAC]

PURPOSE

The City of Tampa Mayor's African American Advisory Council has been together for over 25 years. It is uniquely comprised of African American professional business owners and neighborhood who serve as a liaison between Tampa's Mayor and various governmental agencies, community groups, civic organizations, and religious institutions, regarding the importance of good race relations.

The Council recommends programs and activities which promote good relations among all citizens throughout the in an effort to:

- Develop a means to keep the community aware of changes in policy and procedures to help increase the understanding of the functions of government.
- Become part of a communication network which will disseminate resourceful information to the community at large.
- Bring to the attention of governmental officials, community problems which perpetuate racial unrest.
- Receive and disseminate, in respective neighborhoods, the City's annual budget and scheduling of capital improvement projects.

MAYORAL STAFF APPOINTMENTS

The Mayor appointed two staff members from the City of Tampa to attend all meetings and provide technical assistance.

- Carla Jackson, Neighborhood Liaison from the Neighborhood & Community Relations Office, serves as the Liaison to the Council and manages the daily operations as a direct representative to the Mayor's office.
- Police Captain Roosevelt "Rocky" Ratliff from the Tampa Police Department, represents the Tampa Police Chief regarding public safety issues

MEMBERSHIP

The membership of the Council is designed to represent the Tampa/Hillsborough African - American community. Members are appointed by the Mayor of the City of Tampa and must reside in Hillsborough County. When a vacancy occurs, the members of MAAAC may recommend names to the Mayor for consideration as replacements.

MAAAC can consist of up to 25 members with no set terms and it does not require City Council confirmation or oath of office. By-laws do not require City residency, however, the Mayor has made it a preference to appoint only City residents.

MAAAC officers consist of the Chair, Vice-Chair, Secretary, Treasurer and Parliamentarian. The duties of the officers are those normally associated with such positions in accordance with generally accepted parliamentary procedures.

MEETING INFORMATION

Council members meet monthly on the second Thursday, in the Neighborhood Services Center located at 102 East 7th Avenue, Tampa, FL 33602 within the Code Enforcement Conference Room (Basement Floor Level). General Body meetings begin at 5:30 p.m. until approximately 7:00pm. Executive Board and/or Special meetings are scheduled by the Chair, as needed.

At present, there are four standing committees of the organization, and the duties are assigned pursuant to the Council's goals.

- Community Improvement
- Economic Development
- Education
- Marketing & Communications
- Public Safety
