

Hazardous Electronics:

Please check your electronic item
carefully.

An electronic item IS considered hazardous if it contains any of the following:

- 1) digital display
- 2) circuit board, or
- 3) rechargeable battery

The following items should not be put in the trash:

Camcorders
Cassette players
CD players
Cell phones
Computers including
monitor, keyboard, CPU,
and mouse
Computer accessories such as external drives or power supplies
Copy machines
Digital cameras
DVD players
Fax machines
GPS units
Laptop computers
Marine depth finders
Microwave ovens
Pagers

PDAs
Printers
Projector
Radios
Scanners
Speakers
Stereos
Telephones
Televisions
Toner cartridges
Typewriters (electric)
VCRs
Video game players
Wireless devices

NOTE: Before getting rid of any electronics, please consider fixing a broken item or donating a working item to family, friends, or charity.

The following electronics are generally NOT hazardous and may be disposed of in the regular trash.

- air purifier
- blender
- bread machine
- blow dryer
- camera (non-digital)
- clock
- coffee grinder
- coffee maker
- curling iron
- dehumidifier
- electric can opener
- frying pan (electric)
- fan
- fondue maker
- food processor
- heater
- ice cream maker
- iron
- juicer
- mixer
- paper shredder
- popcorn popper
- pressure cooker (electric)
- razor/shaver (electric)
- sandwich maker (electric)
- slow cooker
- steamer
- toaster
- toaster oven
- toothbrush (electric)
- vacuum cleaner
- waffle maker
- wok