WHEREAS, in 2006, local 95.7 FM radio personality Stu Robinson founded the Stu’s Annual Father Daughter Dance in Tampa, Florida to promote building positive and healthy relationships between devoted fathers and father-figures, and the daughters, nieces and granddaughters in their lives and to impart the motto “It’s Time For Girls to Lower Their Skirts and Raise Their Standards;” and

WHEREAS, a devoted father of a daughter, Stu created this annual event to recognize and celebrate the positive healthy bonds between the men and the young ladies that are special to them, and to bring to the attention of the community the positive impact these relationships have on each person, and to encourage others to develop strong father and daughter relationships of their own; and

WHEREAS, Stu’s Annual Father Daughter Dance celebrates their 5th anniversary on June 19, 2011 and it is fitting to recognize that over 1,000 new and returning attendees have benefited by the reinforcement of positive male relationships, the local business community is supported by this event, and it affords the opportunity to recognize residents that have had an impact in the community; and

WHEREAS, each year the community as a whole benefits from Stu’s Annual Father Daughter Dance with the proceeds from the event donated to charities such as the Children’s Cancer Center and the Boy’s and Girl’s Clubs of Tampa Bay.

THEREFORE, I, Bob Buckhorn, by the virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Tampa, Florida, do here proclaim June 19, 2011 as in the City of Tampa, Florida and urge all citizens to join me in thanking founder Stu Robinson, the supporters, volunteers and attendees of this event for their commitment to building healthy relationships.

Dated in Tampa, Florida, this 14th day of June, 2011

Bob Buckhorn
Mayor
