GREEN TAMPA LIVING GREEN

Why Living Green is important?

Our appetites as consumers are often much greater than our planet's capacity to support those appetites. We see all around us that climate change is real. We know we cannot continue to alter the forces of nature without devastating effects. We need to discover new ways to respect and work with nature more effectively.

As individuals, we can make these changes one choice at a time. The products we buy, the cars we drive, the places we choose to live and work and play all influence tomorrow's possibilities. Our role in living green is a very important one for a sustainable Tampa!

What You Can Do

Drive less - Bicycle/walk more - Walking, bicycling, taking transit, and carpooling all reduce greenhouse gas emissions substantially and also save money and improve local air quality.

Get on the Bus - View information on routes and fare from HART.

- Drive Smarter - Drive a fuel efficient car. Don't idle your engine more than 30 seconds.

GREEN TAMPA LIVING GREEN

Buy fuel-efficient cars - A growing number of hybrid and other highly efficient vehicles are now available, some of which get over 50 mpg. Before you buy a car, compare the efficiency of different vehicles and choose the most fuel-efficient vehicle that meets your needs.

Buy green power - Residential and small business customers of Tampa Electric Company \(TECO\) can buy electricity generated from renewable resources. The green power offerings can be purchased for all or a portion of your electricity use. Find your utility's green power program.

Save money and energy. Have you ever wondered just how much energy you are using and how much it is costing you? Use the energy/appliance calculator to find out.

Reduce, reuse and recycle - Recycling generates fewer greenhouse gas emissions than throwing things away, but reducing waste in the first place is an even better way to reduce emissions and conserve resources. See the City of Tampa's Solid Waste Recycling Division website.

Plant trees - In addition to improving water and air quality, trees remove CO2 from the air as they grow. The Florida Yards & Neighborhoods and Florida Friendly Yards websites provides information on trees that are appropriate to plant in Florida. The non-profit organization Florida-Friendly Landscaping also has a variety of information to help people plant, care for, and learn about trees and landscapes.

Conserve Water - Call the City's Water Department to ask how you can reduce your use by using water more efficiently. Customers may be eligible for rebates, programs, and materials which can help them lower their water bills. Visit the city of Tampa's Water Conservation Section's website for more information. The Tampa Water Department's Water Conservation Program is designed to reduce demands on Tampa's water supply by increasing the efficiency of water use within our service area. Our award winning programs are compromised of various components including both indoor and outdoor conservation efforts.
