[1] If an applicant fails to appear at the scheduled DRC meeting the application will be moved to next available public hearing date, unless otherwise approved by the Zoning Administrator.

[2] Final site plans must be uploaded electronically, in Accela, on the date shown above. If an applicant fails to submit the final site plan on the required date, the application will be moved to next available public hearing date.

[3] Final DRC comments and Staff Report issued to City Council will be based on the final site plan in Accela as of the submittal dates above.

[4] Tentative public hearing dates shown are based on a typical City Council annual calendar and are subject to change. City Council official calendar is typically approved in early January and can be changed by City Council throughout the year.
