

When tables are arranged side by side, with no chairs arranged between the tables, there shall be no less than 15 inches between the tables. There shall be no less than 28 inches between the tables and a wall or other obstruction.